DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-4, 7-14 and 17-19 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims 1 and 11 are drawn, respectively, to a method and an apparatus for capturing image data and inserting the image data into an active document on a mobile device, the mobile device including a camera and a camera activator, the mobile device having an active application in which the active document is open and a camera application, the method comprising detecting a first signal from the camera activator, determining that the active document is open in an editable mode, switching from operation of the active application to the camera application in response to detection of a the first signal from the camera activator if the active document is determined to be open in an editable mode, detecting a second signal from the camera activator, and, in response to detection of said second signal, capturing image data via the camera, and automatically resuming operation of the active application and inserting said image data into said active document open in the active application, which is neither taught or an obvious variation of the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Bhatt (US Patent No. 5,596,753) discloses a system enabling insertion of an image from a scanner into an application program.
